Clauses

A clause is a group of words that contains both a subject and a predicate (or a verb). There are two types of clauses. They are independent clause and dependent clause.

Examples:

- Kalpana wants to buy a phone, but she does not have enough money.
  (Independent Clause) (Independent Clause)
- If you don't study well, you won't pass the exam.
  (Dependent Clause) (Independent Clause)
- Kavin bought a car which was too expensive.
  (Independent Clause) (Dependent Clause)
- Sanjai is a talented player though he is out of form.
  (Independent Clause) (Dependent Clause)

Independent Clauses also known as main clauses are complete sentences. They can stand alone and express a complete thought.

Examples:

I need a book.
Mary prefers coffee.
Ram is a good volleyball player.

Dependent Clauses also known as subordinate clauses contain a subject and a predicate, but they do not express a complete thought.

Examples:

When it is raining
Because you were late
After you go to school
