Uses of Auxiliary vebs

B. Can You do It?

- Talking about the abilities of your class members is a great way to review the use of the modal can.
- Work in pairs and discuss things a person might be able to do. Include things that some people can do and others cannot do, and make a list on the board.
- Once your list has 30-50 abilities, it's time to prepare for the game.
- Each of you will be given a blank paper and fill in the spaces with one of the abilities you listed on the board.
- Then, when the teacher says go, go around the classroom asking each other "Can you _____?", asking about one of the activities listed on the board.
- If the person you ask can do that activity, you mark off the square with his/her name.
- If the person asked cannot do it, move on and ask another person about that ability or another one on your paper.
- You can only ask each person about one ability before moving on to ask another classmate, but you can come back to the same person as often as you like.
- When someone gets five spaces in a row, he calls "BINGO."

Can you?

Example: Can you play the guitar?
Now you try:

Can you ----------?
Can you ----------?
Can you ----------?
Can you ----------?

Write it on the paper

Can you play Cricket?

Mugunthan

Can you sing songs?

Malar

Write down all the 'can do activities' from the board and write down your classmates' names in the box
